VOL. IV. NO. 181.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

RACING AT HARLEM.

The day was warm and cloudy; the track fair. The crowd was somewhat below the average for Monday.

Queen of Song, first away to a good start for the opening race, was taken back by Turner and rating easily along at the head of the second division, came from behind at the last eighth and catching Mazo, the leader, went on and won handily. Mazo was second away, took the track and was never headed, bar Queen of Song. Nellie Fonso was second at the last quarter, but died off quickly. Cathedral didn't do much, fourth position seeming to suit him. Prince McClurg, who ran in the colors of W. E. Applegate and was backed by the talent, including "Hops" Laudeman, finished a bad third. Mr. Drake started to bet on Mazo, but the odds being cut from 10 to 8 to 1, shifted him and he wound up on Cathedral.

Moncreith won with but little urging. He took command at the entrance to the back stretch and thereafter was always in front. The five horses had started fairly together, but passing the stand Prosecutor laid off two lengths behind the bunch, the four ahead of him all waiting, so that "a walking match" was heard. Tranby, always as good as third, beat Prosecutor by a neck for the place, both driving hard. Winslow was second to the upper turn, but finished paired with Roger B, many lengths behind Prosecutor.

Eddie Jones was in a soft spot in the third race and 1 to 3 was the best price. Thorpe rode the favorite as if working the first half, then sent him along from last to first position in the next quarter and from there Eddie Jones "rolled in." Fred Broens, who had been backed from 3 to 1 down to 3 to 2 for place, led the pack for three-quarters of a mile but when the favorite got him, Respass' colt began to back up, and he finished "absolutely," place honors going to Mr. Schorr's Wilson, who easily beat the 100 to 1 shot Elidad. Whirrantiline was second for three-eighths of a mile.

Sea Lion broke quickest and that was the last of it, the favorite winning pulling up. Galathee was second to the far turn, then got into trouble, but struck the straight on the inside rail well up in front only to be again interfered with, so H. Shields pulled him up. Boney Boy was second at the last turn, but lost third money in a hard drive from Volandines, who got off tangled up, as did Gauntlet, who, from fifth position on the far turn, he there being many lengths behind Sea Lion, still ran home second to the favorite. Gauntlet was backed at the post.

Dr. Sheppard won the fifth as he pleased, Candelaria as easily second. Chugnut was third half the journey, but finished last, Paul Kauvar, third, beating Del Paso II. many lengths.

For the first five races not a horse had been scratched, but of the thirteen carded for the final event Abuse scared out eight. The betting with Foster's horse barred was as follows: 7 to 5, Storm King; 11 to 5, Fair Deceiver; 4 to 1, Nannie Davis; 5 to 1, Peter McCue. Abuse won away off, Storm King second, Fair Deceiver third. Peter McCue ran second to the home stretch.

The bookmakers' slips and the programs do not correspond, although some days ago when the matter was brought to official notice, Col. Clark said: "I believe in having the names of the horses in rotation, and have always insisted on this sort of thing wherever I have been presiding judge."

Dave Waldo, br. c, 3, by Sayre—Helianthus, will be sold at public auction August 4 at 1:30 p. m. in the paddock at the Harlem racetrack. Mike Sweeney is again on deck. He became overheated at Washington Park and since has been cooling out.

Trains leave the grand stand after the fourth, fifth and sixth races for Chicago, via, the Lake Street "L."

SLOAN'S RELEASE.

What may possibly be assumed to be Messrs. Fleischmanns' side of the story of Tod Sloan's release from his engagement to ride their horses is thus detailed in the Cincinnati Enquirer of Sunday:

"There is a Cincinnati end to the story of Tod Sloan's release by the Fleischmanns. The release was brought about through a misunderstanding between Mr. Julius Fleischmann, the head of the stable, and the well-known jockey, which resulted in the unconditional release of the great rider. Several times since Sloan has been under contract with the Fleischmanns there have been reports that Sloan was to be released, and that he was to ride for Marcus Daly, the Copper King. The last report was that he was about to sign for next season with some South African millionaire. These reports were always denied as fast as they appeared.

"There is no rumor in this report that he has been released. It is absolutely true, and was given by telegraph yesterday.

"The cause of his release is due to Sloan's ambition to ride what he thinks are certain winners in big stake events. Several times this season Mr. Julius Fleischmann has scratched horses in big events just to satisfy the whim of Sloan, who could get the mount on the favorite. It was this that caused the misunderstanding which resulted in his release.

"The Fleischmann string is now at Saratoga, and several of their best racers are ready for stake events. The other day Sloan asked permission to go to Brighton Beach and ride Hamburg in the Brighton Cup. Mr. Julius Fleischmann said that he had accommodated Sloan so often that he thought he should be accommodated once in a while, and declined to give permission. This was not done without good reason, as Mr. Fleischmann had several starters at Saratoga yesterday, when the Brighton Cup was run for at the Beach. Sloan got warm under the collar and said he was to receive $5,000 from Marcus Daly if he won with Hamburg. Mr. Fleischmann said that was no reason why he should sacrifice several races, and then came the argument, and employer and jockey parted without an understanding. Mr. Fleischmann came to this city and talked the matter over with several of his intimate friends, and it was thought advisable to come to some terms with the jockey. Sloan was very anxious to be released. It was finally agreed that Sloan was to be released, and he was to be paid whatever Mr. Fleischmann thought his services have been worth this season. The result was Sloan was released yesterday.

"It is not known who will ride for the stable in the future, but it is safe to say that Mr. Fleischmann will not be long without the services of a competent jockey. Sloan is now at liberty to ride for whom he pleases, and a day or so will no doubt find him riding regularly for Daly, who is getting ready to race in England, where Sloan has a longing to shine once more as the greatest of American jockeys."

RACING AT ST. LOUIS.

Of the present condition and prospects of racing at the Fair Grounds track the St. Louis Republic says:

"The Fair Association racing stewards will meet this week to select dates for the three fall stakes and decide upon the length of the meeting. The horsemen are unanimously in favor of having the racing season extended through September, but the stewards may conclude to close with the end of ninety days. In that case the patrons of the sport will have to be content with only twenty-three days more racing. Prominent horsemen are flocking here from all over the west, and it looks as though the St. Louis meeting will close in a blaze of glory.

"The present racing season has been the most successful in the history of the association. The quality of sport furnished the patrons of the Fair Grounds has been the best seen here since 1896 and the betting has been surprisingly brisk all summer. The improvement in the betting attracted more bookies than ever, but the formful racing and remarkable success of the talent has caused a woeful diminishment in their ranks recently.

"Very few of the bookies have fared well. Marcus Cartwright, the Nashville plunger, lost $17,000 in three weeks and went to Chicago. Joe Rose's former block man, Abe Ehrlich, was here early in the meeting booking under the name of the California Club, and lost $10,000. Eddie Austin tried the St. Louis game and had to 'duck' it. J. B. Respass, the Cincinnati high roller, tried it for awhile and quit loser. Cole Ullman found it unprofitable booking here and went to Saratoga.

"Herman Hoffman, who never before failed to beat the St. Louis meeting, is said to be a big loser this season. Jack Mahoney, who was one of the high rollers in the southern circuit last spring, came to St. Louis from Louisville, but didn't last long on the block. Will Davis, who beat the Memphis and Louisville meetings, went broke at the Fair Grounds. Captain Eddie Sinclair, Billy Kirwan, George Pesch, Jimmy Halpin and numerous other well-known bookies tried their hand booking at the Fair Grounds, but found the betting public too smart for them and dropped by the wayside. The meeting opened with nineteen books. Then there were fifteen in line for a long time, Saturday only twelve cut in, notwithstanding the fact that the betting is now as good as it ever was. The decrease in the books shows that the public must be beating the ring.

"The three fall stakes of the St. Louis Fair Grounds are all for 2-year-olds. The Chrysanthemum, at one mile, $1,500 guaranteed, for colts, fillies and geldings, is the most important of the trio. It was inaugurated two years ago and has always been won by a good race horse. Algol placed it to his credit in 1896 and Lieber Karl won it last year. The entries this year include Fontainebleau, Espionage, Hindoo's Dream, Leo Planter, Fausturo, Sir Gatan, Dr. Sam, Elm, Racivan, W. Overton, Cathedral and other crack-a-jacks.

"If Mr. Schorr should bring W. Overton to St. Louis for this stake, the crack son of Belvidere will be sure to go to the post a strong favorite. He won nearly every 2-year-old stake at the recent Washington Park meeting, and is by far the best 2-year-old developed in the west this season. The Isabella, for 2-year-old fillies, $1,500, five and a half furlongs, is thought to be at the mercy of Barney Schreiber's great filly, Miss Marion. Louis Ezell's Espionage is the only eligible that appears to have a chance to beat Schreiber's great filly. The Ozark for 2-year-old colts and geldings, $1,500, six furlongs, has a number of good ones entered, the most prominent of which are Fontainebleau, Fausturo, Cathedral, W. Overton, Dr. Sam, Leo Planter and Elm. The dates for these stakes are due to be announced this week."

FUTURITY CANDIDATES

An eastern turf scribe, discussing the Futurity eligibles, says:

"The best horses that have appeared in the east on the Futurity eligible list are J. Storey Curtis' Muggins, Rogers & Rose's Lothario, Phil J. Dwyer's Miller and Half Time, Charles Fleischmann Sons' Dr. Eichberg and Sir Hubert, John E. Madden's Glenheim and Hapsburg, Pittsburg Phil's Ahom, Arthur White's Ornamental, August Belmont's Filon d'Or and Sundream, J. A. Bennett's Dr. Parker and Sanford, A. J. Joyner's Autumn, Alfred Hennen and Dave Morris' Duke of Middleburg, Prestidigitatrice, Caoutchouc and Guillemat, Father Bill Daly's Rusher, Amos Turney's Captain Sigsbee and James Rowe's Tendresse. More than a dozen other colts and fillies that have run and won hereabouts are on the list, but not one of them has done enough to warrant their handlers in going to the trouble and expense of getting him or her ready for the race. There are others that have not started on account of indisposition or accident, but they have been doing well in their work, and still others that have raced in the west.

"Two promising youngsters in Jimmie Rowe's string belong to the former variety. They are A. B. Barnes' filly, Lady in Blue, by Himyar, out of the mare, British Blue Blood, and a handsome chestnut colt called Lumen, by Kinglike, which Mr. Rowe himself owns. Sickness has kept them both in their stables so far, but they have been doing so well lately that Mr. Rowe and all his friends believe that their Futurity chances are excellent. Lady in Blue has been particularly admired. Another highly tried filly on the Futurity eligible list is John Sanford's Mai, by Meddler. Mai has been handled by W. P. Burch, and, like Lady in Blue, was alling earlier in the year, when Whiplash, Prestidigitatrice, Onondaga's Pride, Ornamental, High Degree, Caoutchouc and the other smart misses were out earning their keep. She is rapidly rounding to, however, and Mr. Burch believes that he has in her a very promising two-year-old. Another fast youngster that has not made his appearance as yet because of sickness is the Rayon d'Or—Sallie McClelland colt, His Lordship. His Lordship is a strapping big youngster with a splendid turn of speed. He is owned by Byron McClelland's widow and J. D. Smith, who is handling the McClelland horses in the east. His Lordship has shown at much speed as any youngster that has raced hereabouts this year in his private trials, and Mr. Smith believes that in him he has the Futurity winner.

"Jean Beraud is not eligible for the Futurity. His dam, Carrie C., was not believed to be in foal when the nominations were made, and Jean Beraud, the greatest colt of 1898, like Hamburg, the greatest colt of 1897, was not named for the richest prize of the American turf. Perhaps it is just as well that Jean Beraud is not to go. If he were in the Futurity the outcome of the race would not be so charmingly uncertain. Michael F. Dwyer's swift-footed Kingston colt, Kingdon, is not eligible, either, nor is James Galway's Ethelbert. The master of Preakness will not, however, be without representatives. Two promising Jersey bred youngsters in his string are being licked into shape for it by Lew Elmore at Saratoga. They are Ellerdale and Bangor, and both have shown sufficiently well in their work to greatly encourage both Mr. Galway and Mr. Elmore. The greatest of the western Aspirants on public form is William Hendrie's Martimas, a strapping chestnut colt by Candlemas, out of the famous mare Biggonet. Martimas is at Saratoga, and he has done so well that many of the horsemen at the spa have predicted victory for him. Martimas is not a green colt. He started twice at Ft. Erie and won both times. His owner is a wealthy Canadian, and will come down on Futurity day to bet a lot of money on the Candlemas colt. J. E. Seagram has a string of youngsters at the spa also, undergoing preparation for the Futurity. Several of them have done pretty well too.

"If a future book on the Futurity was opened today, Autumn, Captain Sigsbee, Glenheim, Ahom, Sir Hubert, Dr. Parker and Dr. Eichberg would get more support from the Long Island owners and trainers than any of the other youngsters. A great deal has been said about Ahom lately. The good-looking half brother of Ben Brush showed on two occasions this season that he could race in company. He hasn't been out recently, but he has been worked steadily and is in excellent condition. Glenheim is another vastly improved colt. He is a bit overgrown still, but is in much better shape than he ever was before, and John Madden expects to have him give a good account of himself on Futurity day. Hapsburg, who will probably be Glenheim's running mate in the Futurity, is a half brother to Hamburg. He is out of Hamburg's dam, Lady Reel, by the stallion Candlemas, who has got some good race horses during the last few years. Hapsburg raced at Morris Park early in the spring, but did not show any of Hamburg's speed. He was not in the best of condition then, however, and Mr. Madden believes that his long rest has improved him.

TURF REFORM IN ENGLAND.

As a result of the recent agitation in the English Jockey Club and sporting press of the country in favor of longer distance racing, at a meeting of the English Jockey Club, to be held at Newmarket in the first October week, the Stewards will propose that rules 45, 46 and 47 of the Rules of Racing be altered to read as follows:

"45. At every meeting advertised in the Racing Calendar one-half of the total amount guaranteed for prizes shall be apportioned to races of a mile or over, for three-year-olds or upwards only, and of this half, not less than a moiety shall be for races of a mile and a half or upwards.

"46. There shall be no race of less distance than five furlongs.

"47. The program of each day shall be subject to the following regulations:

"(I.) There shall be at least one race of one mile and a half or upward, and at least one race of a mile or upward. Neither of these races shall be open to two-year-olds; and one of them shall be neither a handicap nor a race with selling conditions.

"(II.) There shall not be more than two races to which three-year-olds or upward are admitted of less than seven furlongs, and of these two races only one may be less than six furlongs.

"(III.) Of the races confined to two-year-olds, there shall not be more than two races a day before September 1, nor more than three a day at any time.

"(IV.) Matches and private sweepstakes may be sanctioned by the stewards, independent of the above regulations.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Andy Hamilton, the once famous colored jockey, is now penniless. Hamilton has been getting but few mounts in the east this year, and it keeps him hustling to make his expenses. Several days ago a roadhouse keeper near the Brighton Beach racetrack put in a board bill against Hamilton with the stewards of the Brighton track, and what little money he has coming to him for mounts at that track will, by order of the track officials, be used to settle the bill.

J. C. Cahn leads the winning owners at St. Louis with $9,760 to his credit, Crockett winning most of it. Other owners, whose horses have done well are: Woodford & Buckner, $7,000; C. C. Maffitt, $6,670; Barney Schreiber, $6,235; A. Cahn, $5,598; G. C. Bennett, $5,497; W. L. Simmons, $5,815; J. Huffman & Co., $4,839; Schorr & Son, $3,220; Foster Bros., $3,603, and quite a large array of owners are well above the thousand mark.

Riley Grannan is spending the summer at Saratoga Springs, but does not attempt to enter the gates of the Saratoga Racing Association. Grannan is under the ban of the eastern jockey club, and therefore barred from following his vocation. Outside of the track there is a poolroom. There Grannan contents himself making bets on foreign races and every now and then sending a commissioner into the local ring.

The dates of the fall races at Woodbine Park, Toronto, Ont., were announced July 21. Seven days' racing will be given on the Ontario Jockey Club course from September 24 to October 1, both inclusive, under the auspices of the Country and Hunt Club. The Toronto races will follow the Fort Erie fall meeting, which closes September 22, and after the Toronto races the Detroit meetings will begin.

The suckling full brother to Kingdon, property of W. L. Lansing, of Harrodsburg, died a few days ago.

Winner—Br. f, by Esher—Sonata.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next three were driving. Queen of Song liked the track, had a lot of speed and ran a good race. She is a more than ordinary filly. Mazo showed a sharp turn of speed. It was perhaps used at the wrong time. Had Conley waited and made his run in the stretch the colt would have had a better winning chance. Prince Mc Clurg was all tangled up at the start. He was pocketed to the stretch turn, but came with a rush when he got through. Cathedral does best on a soft track. He was off well and, bar some interference on the far turn, had no excuses. Gay Parisienne ran a fair race. She is speedy, but seems to be faint hearted. The same can be said of Nellie Fonso. Cheval d'Or wants mud to do his best.

7524 SECOND RACE—1-8 Miles. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Purse $400; net value to winner $325; $100 to second; $50 to third.

Winner—Br. c, 4, by Jim Gore—Bagpipes.
Off at first break to a good start. Won well in hand; second whipped out; third easily. It was a bad race. Moncreith was the best and galloped all the way. All the boys in the race evidently had waiting orders. The pace was very slow. Burns took advantage of the other boys waiting and rated Moncreith nicely in front. He stole a march on the stretch turn and opened a gap the others could not overcome. Franby ran a good race. He swerved, though, under punishment in the stretch. Keep this fellow in mind. He seems to be a fair sort of a selling player. Roger B could not run fast enough to keep warm. Throw his race out. It was far below the mark. Winslow ran well up the first part of it which shows the pace must have been slow. Through the stretch Prosecutor came fast. Moncreith was jumped on and cut in the race.

7525 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds. Allowances. Purse $400; net value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 1:13, 2:37, 5:0, 1:02, 1:15, 1:34.

Winner—B. c, by Morello—Early Rose.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a walk; second and third were driving. Eddie Jones far outclassed his field. He was in a soft spot and won as he should, off by himself. This is a colt of class and will win from now on in better company. He likes a fast track best. Wilson's forte is mud. Considering his long let-up and the condition the track was in, he ran a good race. Elidad finished with a rush. Fred Broens had a lot of speed. He is an awful coward and went all to pieces when Eddie Jones caught him. It looks as though he never will be able to go a route.

7526 FOURTH RACE—5-1/2 Furlongs. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Purse $400; net value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 12, 23, 49, 1:02, 1:08.

Winner—B. c, by Deceiver—Sea View.
Post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won handily; second driving; third and fourth driving also. Sea Lion got a running start, was lucky and well ridden. He was heavily played and evidently likes a route. From a bad beginning Gauntlet ran a corking good race. With an equal break he would have been hard to beat. Volandies suffered from poor handling. Everett got all tangled up on the far turn and swung wide in the stretch. Boney Boy, off well, showed his usual turn of speed but tired badly at the end. He is a consistent colt that likes weight off. Galathee an below the notch.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Buchanan—Vulture.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third just as easily. Dr. Sheppard was the best and showed it. He was under restraint in front all of the way. He is a colt of fair class and is in good form now. Candelaria got the place in the same way as Sheppard won. He is a good colt, but cannot beat Sheppard. He was raced in bar plates today. Paul Kauvar was hard ridden all the way, but eased at the end. The race was between the first three all of the way.

7528 SIXTH RACE—3-4 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. $400 added; net value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 12, 24, 36, 48, 1:01, 1:14.

Winner—B. h. 5, by Plevna—Abukru.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a walk; second cleverly. Third and fourth driving. There was nothing to the race. Abuse was far the best, in a soft spot and played with his field. He is in fine form at present. Keep close watch on Storm King. He ran a cracking good race and is ready to win. This is a good colt. He was badly cut down in Canada but is entirely over that now. Fair Deceiver ran where she belongs. Nannie Davis was coming fast at the end. Little Waldo was not strong enough to hold the filly any. Peter McCue, as usual, showed a lot of speed. He was high in flesh, nowhere near ready and stopped early.

Scratched—Newgatherer, 95; George H. Ketcham, 95; Tartarian, 100; Tom Toher, 88; Sybaris, 91; Joe Mussel, 98; Bryan, 95; Robinson, 95.

Time, 26, 51 1/4, 1:17 1/4, 1:43 1/4, 1:50 1/4.

Winner—B. g. 5, by Hanover—Long Cloth.
Start good. Won driving. Tanis' victory stamps the race a very bad one. Lansdale is best in mud always but is improving. Our Johnny had no chance with his ride. He was allowed to fall hopelessly out of the race on the first turn, although the pace was ridiculously slow. Taranto is a fair horse always.

Scratched—Banquo II, 114; General Maceo, 103; Charagrace, 99; Maximo Gomez, 99; Black Dude, 99.

Time, 12 1/4, 24, 36 1/4, 49 1/4, 1:03.

Winner—B. c. by Kingston—Startle.
Start good. Won driving. Campus is promising. He closed strong and took the short route. Ben Blue came fast at the end. Somers ran well. Abide looked to be second and ran well under bad handling. Fulminate ran out on the stretch turn or he would have been closer up. Curio had no chance with the jockey but ran well. Ineenamara showed a fine burst of speed but was allowed to run out and lost all chances. Windward is a fine looker and was a big tip but ran green; may do better later on.

Scratched—Mount Clemens, 92; Althea, 89.

*Dead heat.
Start good. Finished driving. Tabouret was under a choking pull the first part and was the best. Sloan on the third best horse today made Maher look cheap. Lady Marian was allowed to swerve in the stretch and from a bad beginning ran finely.

7542 RUN OFF.

Winner—B. f. by Ben Strome—Roseleaf.
Start good. Won easily. Kenmore Queen was saved and came with a rush in the stretch. Tabouret was turned loose from the start. It was clearly a case of superior jockeyship.

Scratched—Eileen D., 96.

Time, 24, 49 1/4, 1:02 1/4, 1:15 1/4, 1:21 1/4.

Winner—B. h. 5, by Highland Chief—Barcelona.
Start fair. Won easily. Royal Stag outclassed his field at the distance and got a strong ride from a lucky break. Decater broke slowly and fell hopelessly out of the race, but came strong at the finish. Glorian was standing flat-footed at the start and was exhausted in making up lost ground. He ran a splendid race under adverse conditions. General Maceo is very good right now for him. Chenille is very fast, but is only up to a sprinting distance.

Scratched—Lady Marian, 94.

7544 FIFTH RACE—7-8 Mile. $800 added. 2-year-olds. Handicap.

Time, 13, 25, 50, 1:03, 1:16 1/4, 1:29 1/4.

Winner—B. f. by Bersan—Catherine C.
Start good. Won driving. Exception won through the ride. Tendresse, waited with, came fast at the end, having saved ground on the turns. Chorus Boy was best, but was run to a standstill the first part of the race. Dr. Fitzsimmons was a good horse in this race. Easter Card bolted on the stretch turn, and is a bad betting tool.
Scratched—Jack Point, 123; Cormorant, 117; Kirkwood, 117; Helen Thomas, 102.
Corrected weight—Al Reeves, 90.

Time, 25 1/4, 49 1/4, 1:15, 1:42.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Volante—Maori.
Start good. Won easily. Marito was the best and best handled. Songster was badly ridden, but was a good horse to-day. Burlesque, lucky and well handled, ran his race.
Scratched—Decanter, 102; Ten Spot, 103; Juno, 101; Campania, 101.

Time, 25 1/4, 51 1/4, 1:05, 1:20 1/4.

Winner—Fr. h. 5, by Isaac Murphy—Derochement.

Post 16 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second and third hard at it. It was a bad lot. Nora S. should have won. She swerved into the deep going and then was only nosed out. Kowalsky had no help from his rider. Cochina showed speed.

Scratched—Jolly Son, 92; Bridget, 92; Judith C, 90.

Overweights—Tom Kingsley, 3 1/4 pounds.

7535 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. f. by Masetto—Miss Rye.

Post 11 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Eva Rice was the best. She is not at home in the going and can beat better ones on a fast track. Spinnaker had speed for a time, as did Lucky Star II. The latter probably bled internally. She interfered with the bunch behind her, Spinnaker being all but pulled up.

Scratched—Laura May, 102.

Overweights—Annie Oldfield, 2 1/4 pounds; Spinnaker, 2; Allie B, 2.

7536 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. Purse $300. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.
